Job Description:
It's Your Career. Own it!

We make it easy to own your success. At Rent-A-Center, we have a no credit, worry-free policy. That's because we believe in putting people in control of their future. This same belief extends to our talented team members. We help you make your career what you want it to be.

Assistant Manager - Sales

The role of Assistant Manager can mean different things at different places. Around here, it says you intend to create the most rewarding, enjoyable, and supportive environment for your customers and coworkers. You want to become part of a competitive team of passionate problem-solvers and lead them to new levels of success. Of course, you also manage inventory, provide superior customer service, and so much more. The bottom line is that you do more than grow revenue, you grow in your career. That's what being an Assistant Manager at Rent-A-Center is all about. Are you ALL in?

Why should you work at RAC?

Move your career to the center of an industry-leading company. Creating opportunity for others is what we're all about. That's why we make a point to promote from within. Endless growth potential? The chance to work with top brands and top talent? Yeah, you can do all that here. And then some.

We have thousands of employees. But we take care of them one by one.

How would you like to have Sundays off? Yes, every Sunday. We also offer a comprehensive and competitive benefits package that includes everything from health insurance to a 401(k) and generous paid time off. But you'll find the real benefits to joining us come from within. Everything we do is about enriching people's lives. Yours included. You can work your way to the future you want. We'll help you own it.

Rent-A-Center will consider all qualified applicants with criminal histories in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Los Angeles Fair Chance Initiative for Hiring ordinance.

Pursuant to the San Francisco Fair Chance Ordinance, we will consider for employment qualified applicants with arrest and conviction records

Do you have what it takes?

- Must be at least 19 years of age (18 in HI and OR)
- High school diploma or GED
- Valid state driver's license and good record
ELECTION DAY WORKER

HELP NEW YORK VOTE: BECOME A POLL WORKER

B e c o m e  a  P o l l w o r k e r

The right to vote is one of our nation's oldest and most important entitlements, and with this right comes responsibility. Free and open elections are the basis on which this country was formed and you can make a difference by becoming a poll worker to help protect those freedoms.

Because of COVID-19, New York is experiencing a critical shortage of poll workers. Historically, 55 percent of all New York’s poll workers are over the age of 60, making them especially vulnerable to the pandemic. This has resulted in a significant need for poll workers who are willing and able to assist with the administration of in-person voting during the November 3rd general election.

When are you needed?
During Early Voting, October 24th to November 1st, and Election Day, November 3rd.

What tasks will you perform as a poll worker?
- Prepare the polling place for voting
- Set up the voting equipment
- Sign-in and process voters
- Enforce social distancing
- Demonstrate voting procedures to the voters
- Sanitize voting equipment
- Close the polling place
- Canvass and report the results
- Assist voter if requested

You are eligible to serve as a poll worker if you:
Are a New York State registered voter. If you are 17 years old, you may be eligible if your school district participates in a program under Education Law Section 3207-a. Interpreters do not need to be registered voters. You will be assigned within the county where you live. If you live in New York City, you will be assigned within the five boroughs.

Will you be paid?
Yes, Poll Workers get paid for training and each day they work.
The Board of Elections is committed to fulfilling its responsibility to the citizens of New York State by providing fair and accurate elections. This responsibility and the credit associated with it must be shared with the many dedicated workers that help make elections successful. You can get involved and become a proud participant in a process that is the foundation of democracy in our country. Come work with us.

Applying is simple and easy:
If you live in NYC, please complete the NYC Election Day Worker Form.
